2011 Conference Speakers

Father Michael Lightner

As a standout athlete in high school, Michael accepted a full scholarship to play football at the University of Eastern Michigan. Standing 6 ft. 4 in. in height and possessing a massive build of 330 lbs, he the ideal candidate for the NFL's next offensive lineman. On a Pilgrimage to Medjugorje, with his Mother Joyce, the Lord called to him, to come play for His team. Through his incredible Confession, to seeing God's Healing Power first-hand, this college football-player was deeply moved by God's Divine Mercy. Father Michael is now the Director of Campus Ministries of the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee. He is also the Director of Apostolate of Prayer in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee, WI.

Father Paul Nicholson

Fr Paul was ordained in 1997 and is a pastor for the Diocese of London, ON. He is the youngest of six brothers and is an associate member of the Priestly Society of the Holy Cross. He is a humorous and dynamic speaker who is passionate about being Catholic and passing on the faith to those striving for holiness. He is an enthusiastic and energetic preacher who will offer practical assistance to men to find and serve Christ in the midst of ordinary life.

Dave Durand

Dave Durand was named as one of America's top 100 minds in Personal Development by Leadership Excellence Magazine alongside Stephen Covey, Tony Robbins and Oprah Winfrey. During his career as a Personal Success Coach, he has trained over 100,000 professionals. He is also a Best Selling Author of Perpetual Motivation and Time Management For Catholics.
